

You must regard the interferences this will cause to amateur frequencies. It is unconsionable to wipe out amateur radio communications for the convenience of the power companies.